Desire as a Leader

- Teach foundational truths in God's Word that will spur believers onto an obedient following of Jesus Christ for the rest of their days.
- Develop diverse, yet authentic community that transcends race, social status, etc. because of a common bond in Christ.
- Lead others to be very sensitive towards the needs of those God places in our path. AKA: Biblical hospitality
- Be a fair, honest, and enthusiastic leader.
- Teach people about the LORD of the Bible, not the American generic version of "god".
- Teach about faith and trust in the Lord. He is faithful!
- Teach believers how to defend and explain their faith in a postmodern culture.
- Teach young people the importance of the local church.
- Teach people how to reproduce in others all they have learned about their faith. Make disciples that make disciples.

"So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.' " Luke 17:10 ESV
